End of Quarter 1 is Friday

We are completing our first quarter on Friday. Grades will be entered and report cards will be sent home next week. I cannot believe how fast this first fourth of the year has gone by. We have accomplished many things in our classroom, but we have much more to learn!

November 2, 2016

Language Arts- We are finalizing our poems in class. We have also been continuing on with our Book Club. I am seeing major improvements in our fluency!

Math- We are learning different methods to add numbers within 200. Today we started our first method. We have made lots of progress in our mental math skills.
