Celebrating Catholic Schools

This week we are celebrating Catholic Schools around the country. Each day there is a different theme. These themes are: service in our community, celebrating students, celebrating the nation, recognizing vocations, and celebrating staff and volunteers in our school.

February 1, 2017

Language Arts- We are writing personal stories and learning about setting. We are starting our unit five book club.

Math- Next week we will be wrapping up with our subtraction unit. We are slowly moving through it!

Religion- We have been talking about our sins, coming up with a list for reconciliation, and doing practice for Saturday.

Upcoming Dates:
